

ILAC has the pleasure to invite you to the following conference which will take place on Thursday, February 09th at 6:15 pm at KPMG (44 Avenue John F. Kennedy, 1855 Luxembourg, Luxembourg)

The topic will be:

« Investor Relations in the Insurance Industry »

(The conference will be held in English)

Matt Cohen
CFO of RSA Luxembourg

will do us the honor of being our speaker on that occasion.

Investor relations is an important part of capital markets, providing a link between the investor community, analysts and executive management. But what is the role of Investor Relations? Why is it important? What kind of questions do investors ask management? What is the role of consensus? How do investors value P&C insurance companies?

Matt Cohen, CFO of RSA Luxembourg was formerly Group Head of Investor Relations for the RSA Insurance Group before they were acquired by Intact. He will be providing insight into the above questions based on his past experience.
